

PYXIS PARTNERS
PATHWAYS TO PROGRESS

Brynn Stevens - Intern

Brynn is a graduate student at Tulane University in the School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine pursuing a Masters in Public Health with a concentration in Health Policy with an expected graduation date of May 2023. Brynn was drawn to Pyxis because equity, accessibility, and compassion are some of their core values, particularly the sincerity and passion of Pyxis' mission. In her free time, Brynn enjoys running, baking, crocheting, and reading.
